@bambylea

Fantastic speech! I'm so pleased you're in Victoria. You may be able to assist me with this. My local council, City of Casey has removed all female toilets. They are now refusing to provide menstrual hygiene bins to public toilets, along with nappy bins.

Bamby @bambylea · Feb 24, 2023

Sanitary & nappy bins no longer provided due to rise in vandalism in unisex toilets, the only toilets being approved. Yet another reason why we need sex segregated spaces. When they become mixed, women & children's needs are cast to the wind. #invisiblewomen #urinaryleash

Dear Resident

Further information has been received by a Council officer to advise that unfortunately Casey do not supply nappy bins or sanitary bins at public toilets. The simple reason being vandalism. Developers do not maintain public toilets in parks.

@SFWEastSussex

Thank you for standing for women.

That was a fantastic speech Moira.

We need more brave, articulate women like you in politics.

Brava 🌟🌟🌟

I'm a life long leftie and it was great to see someone in parliament finally standing up for women's rights. I suspect there are more lefties like me who could be persuaded to vote liberal if they put women's rights on the agenda.

Fantastic speech.

I only wish we had a politician over here in WA who had the guts to speak about this issue. @MarkMcGowanMP's government is preparing to usher in similar ill thought out laws in Western Australia. Most people I talk to don't even know it's happening.
