Great.
But this is not normal internet research.
They have to be experts in “grey” deleted posts.
PS perhaps one or 2 of your brave colleagues could come out publicly and support you. David S? Georgie?
When Matt was under attack for lobstergate no one would publicly support him. So I did.

Agree. We are working on building further material in. Thanks again for your support on this and I’m only sorry that admin didn’t listen to you and Staley at the time. Cheers, JP

John,
Between us you need to strengthen the case against her.
Ian Quick will know people who can find anything on the internet even long deleted stuff. Apparently you need to be an expert to find deleted stuff.
Moira will herself also have said even more crazy stuff over the years.
