Untied loose ends and an ominous shift of tone: The statement that never saw the light of day

The Liberal Party and suspended MP Moira Deeming were working on a joint statement to avoid another internal party ruction. It was never issued.

Kim,
This is an appalling bunch of lies and proves if you ever had any doubt of who is prepared to leak and twist information then it has been cleared up from this article.

I'm so disillusioned by the whole thing. That doc was only held by u me and her. So it looks like she
