Also how much of this is about trans views etc? And how did she get into Parliament in the first place and what are doing to address this next time around with candidates?

Be prepared for questions tomorrow about why you have taken this action? What has she done? Yes she went to the rally but what are her links to the extremists? Also do you have the support of the party? Will they back you? Are you concerned that you are clamping down on free speech and women like her should be able her should be able to express her view? Things to think about. Chat in morning. Well played today. Strong, decisive leadership

On Saturday evening, Victorians saw an abomination on the steps of the Victorian Parliament when Nazi protesters engaged in an affront to the values we should all hold dear as Victorians.

The violence, prejudice and hate that these protesters conveyed by their odious actions will never be acceptable in our state. I condemn them and commit to opposing such hate wherever it may exist.

This afternoon, I met with Moira Deeming MP to discuss the events of Saturday. Mrs Deeming assured me that she was not involved in the organisation or actions of the Nazi protesters. I have no reason to doubt Mrs Deeming's account.

Nevertheless, following our discussion, Mrs Deeming tendered her resignation as a member of the Parliamentary Liberal Party. I believe this was an appropriate step for her to take and obviates the need to explore alternatives.

The Liberal Party I joined, and which I am now honoured to lead, must strive to represent all Victorians.

Regardless of religious faith, race, sexual preference, ethnicity or other attribute, Victorians everywhere should know that the Liberal Party is inclusive and can be a voice for them.

No matter what our particular attributes, we all share the abiding bond of an essential humanity.

Equality of opportunity, the benefits to each and all of an enterprising culture, the security that comes from the rule of law, the strength which stems from families and communities that can live together in search of happiness while sharing in our state's prosperity, must extend to all people who reside in our land.

Joint Statement on neo-Nazi incident

Today's incident on the steps Parliament House is an affront to every Victorian who values our inclusive, tolerant and multicultural community.

The behaviours today by neo-Nazis are a deliberate attempt to incite hatred and violence and are nothing short of sickening.

These shameful individuals and the hateful ideology they push have no place in our state and must never be tolerated.

Victoria is better than this.

The Victorian Liberals and Nationals continue to support the frontline officers Victoria Police, who continue to focus on community safety in frequently dangerous and complex situations.

The Andrews Labor Government must join with the Liberals and Nationals to ensure Victoria Police have the powers, resources and training to stamp out these shocking acts of hate.

'Multiple Greens sources, who spoke on the condition of anonymity, said while the party wanted Labor to take integrity issues more seriously, MPs were treading carefully because their supporters wouldn't want them to assist in anything that could eventually contribute to the downfall of a left-wing government.'

bradbattinmp Victorian Greens back Corruption over Integrity to save seats - this in my opinion makes them corrupt to the core.

It is disgusting these members of Parliament, elected to Parliament to uphold integrity, openly say they will turn a blind eye to protect their own seats.

If integrity fails, democracy fails. And with a Greens Labor government in Victoria, it is failing.
