Hi David

I'm quite seriously shook up by this one. And this is one of the men who has been obsessed with me for a long time and I know he lives in Melbourne. I'm extremely upset by this and frightened by the fact that it's a public incitement to violence against me and I'm the only one of these women who actually lives in Melbourne. Everyone knows my schedule and when I'm likely to be walking to and from Parliament because the sitting dates are public. And everyone knows I speak out regularly about reforming the law to be based on sex rather than trans-ID. Parliament sits each time for three days in a row, so now if I speak up are they going to organise to come and catch me on my way to the hotel and violently assault me in a big group? That's what it reads like to me and I am genuinely shook up about it. I am very often alone for that short walk and I am already forced to do that walk all alone and often have to do it at late at night- so I already struggle with it and feel vulnerable to opportunistic vengeful, unhinged violence- but now I am distressed that there seems to be the beginning of a plan to do it.

If you go to the original video, you can see that what he is saying should happen to me is a mob attack by big strong males who identify as females.
