Thanks, it's been horrendous for me & my family. Particularly raw for my parents. In years to come when my children see these headlines, they too will feel raw and sad. And now I see JP has publicly announced a 9 month harassment & intimidation campaign against me. I feel the leadership are deeply, personally unhinged about bullying me out. And I'm amazed at how many otherwise good men & woman have just about demanded that I accept every horrible betrayal, lie, attack & threat- past & future ones to come- without complaint, for the 'good of the party'. I'm left wondering where have all the good men gone? Don't seem to be a critical mass in the Lib MP set :(we miss you all. We were locked up at home surrounded by reporters, so we booked a quick trip to QLD to give ourselves a bit of normalcy & fun. Your public support honestly brings me to tears, we are so grateful x

Always will stand with you and your family! ❤️
