Affidavit of: Taylor Auerbach
Address: c/- Giles George, Level 7, 135 King Street, Sydney NSW 2000
Occupation: Producer and journalist
Date: 2 April 2024

I, Taylor Auerbach, c/- Giles George, Level 7, 135 King Street, Sydney, Producer, say on oath:

1. I have sworn the affidavits in these proceedings on the following dates:
 - (a) 30 March 2024 (First Affidavit); and
 - (b) 31 March 2024 (Second Affidavit).
2. I had dinner with the applicant and Mark Llewellyn at Spice Temple on 14 March 2023. During our meal, Mark said to the applicant "Do you have the documents from the criminal proceedings?". The applicant said "Yes I do." Mark and I discussed what arrangements would have to be made for the applicant to gain access to Seven's offices in Martin Place so he could copy his documents. I recall that we debated whether the applicant should sign in or use one of our passes. The applicant then accompanied Mark Llewellyn and I to Seven's Martin Place offices. I no longer recall how the applicant gained access to the office. Mark Llewellyn asked me to assist the applicant with accessing a photocopier. I used my pass to log into the photocopier. I observed that the applicant had in his possession a large lever arch hard back folder containing what I saw to be around 500 pages of documents printed on both sides. I viewed some of the documents that were being copied and could see that they were exhibits from the applicant's criminal proceedings. I saw by way of example Ms Higgins' text messages. While the applicant was copying the documents, we were seen by Seven newsreader Angela Cox. She said to me "Looks like you've got a big story coming."

3. The applicant did not provide me with the copy of the documents that he made but said to me on a number of occasions that evening "you will get this copy when you sign me – get Mark to sign the paperwork."
4. Annexed hereto and marked Annexure G is a copy of screenshot of a text message exchange I had with Mark Llewellyn and Steve Jackson that day.
5. In paragraph 16 of my First Affidavit I referred to a chronology emailed to me by the applicant. Since swearing my First Affidavit, I have searched my Hotmail account that I rarely use. I located an email that I sent to myself from my Seven email account to both my Gmail account and my Hotmail account on 29 April 2023. It is an email I sent to Mark Llewellyn's Gmail account on 26 April 2023 attaching a chronology (Chronology).
6. On or around 26 April 2023 I was at Spotlight's office at the Seven premises in Martin Place when Mark asked me to obtain a chronology from the applicant. I recall messaging the applicant on social media or a messaging service to ask him for one. My recollection is that the applicant sent the Chronology to me by email to my Seven email address. I then forwarded it Mark to his Hotmail account. I did not send it to Mark's Seven email address because I was given a direction by either Mark or the applicant to ensure there was not an obvious trail of communication with the applicant. For this reason, Mark and I often used our personal email addresses instead of our Seven email addresses.
7. Annexed hereto and marked Annexure H is a copy of the email as forwarded to my solicitor, the Chronology attached to the email and a screenshot of the metadata of the Chronology.
8. I refer to paragraph 17(m) of my First Affidavit. I wish to clarify that although John MacGowan was present that evening he did not benefit from the Thai massages. My recollection is that he left soon after the masseuses arrived.
9. Since swearing my First and Second Affidavit, I logged into my AirBandB account and located a copy of the receipt for the Tasmanian accommodation that I booked for the benefit of the applicant and John MacGowan as part of my role working on Trial and Error. Annexed hereto and marked Annexure I is a screenshot of the receipt from my AirBandB account.

10. I refer to paragraph 5 of my Second Affidavit. I also located an email from the applicant to my Gmail account on 1 March 2023 in relation to accommodation options proposed to Mark Llewellyn's Gmail account which included the Randwick rental property ('Barker's Charm – Randwick - L'Abode Accommodation') referred to in that paragraph and identified in the metadata of the photographs an example of which is Annexure F of the Second Affidavit. Annexed hereto and marked Annexure J is a copy of that email.

35.	23 Mar 19	At approximately 0200, two APH pass holders a male and a female, walked in through the sliding doors of the Ministerial basement entry known as Point 8. I took particular notice of the female in her knee length white cocktail dress because I thought she looked rather attractive in the dress. Upon looking at her further I noticed that she had grass stains down one side of her dress, I am unable to recall if it was on the left or the right side. 37.	23 Mar 19	Between about 0150 - 0230 BL states 100: I entered the office and turned left to my desk. Um, Brittany turned right into the minister's suite, which is opposite the chief of staff's suite. Um, I turned left obviously to my desk, um, and, um, I didn't see her again. So, I went to my desk, um, my brief case was there, I've got what I needed to for the weekend. 101: I also, um, attended to some of the Question Time folders because through the course of that evening, the discussions that we were having with Defence officials, um, while it was on my mind, I, um, attended to some of the Question Time folders because we had a new minister heading into her, um, first Question Time, so I wanted to ensure that – that was part of my role was to look after her Parliamentary duties. 102: So, um, while it was still on my mind, um, and the discussions that we'd have, particularly about some of the industry, um, programs, particularly in the Air Force. 103: Um, I was moving those around. 104: Um, and then I ordered myself an Uber. Um and I left the building through the - through the car park. The uber indicated that it was here and I went - and I left the building. That's - that's how I recall that evening. 442: Um, and then, um, I ordered the Uber at about, from my desk in Parliament at about, oh, two twenty, two twenty-five and waited for the Uber. And it sort of arrived at about two thirty. 607: Um, yeah, I never saw Brittany again, um, in the office, so. 608. Did you hear her or? A No, no. I – no, and when she – when she went into – and when she turned right, I thought she was working on what she needed to work on, so, I, um, yeah, I did what I had to do. 609. I never left my desk. 610. Or my own corner. Um, then when I – when I did. 611. Which way did you exit the suite? A Well, from memory I exited out the back door.	ROI Lehrmann 19.04.22 w/ AFP 100-104

		Mark explained the situation to me on what had happened. I contacted PSS Officer Nikola Anderson (Foxtrot 4) and asked could she do a welfare check as soon as possible to see if everything was alright.
44.	23 Mar 19	At approximately 0300 I attended the ministerial basement (PT 8) to give my colleague his meal break. It was then that he informed me of the strange behaviour portrayed by the male that had come in with the female.	Signed Nikola Anderson Ltr to Police 20.03.21
45.	23 Mar 19	At approximately 0315 the nightshift team leader rang me on the Parliament house landline. He told me that if the female hadn't come down in the time that J was stationed on the point to go and do a welfare check on her as soon as my colleague came back from his break.	Signed Nikola Anderson Ltr to Police 20.03.21
46.	23 Mar 19	At approximately 04.15am I went to Ministerial suite (1-23) to carry out the welfare check on the female pass holder. I entered and announced myself loudly. All the lights in the suite were off and I noticed that the door leading into the Minister's office was closed. I announced myself again loudly as I opened the Minister's office door. I found the female pass holder asleep on the Minister's lounge naked and in the fetal position. She had heard me come in as she opened her eyes and rolled over on to her side. Upon realising she was alright and conscious I backed out of the office, closed the door behind me and vacated the suite. I then called Kevin Callan and notified him of what I had witnessed. 47.	23 Mar 19	Incident Report About 4.15hrs: "Female PSS Officer Anderson attended the suite M1-23 and observed that it was unlocked. PSS Officer Anderson entered the suite to undertake an occupancy check before securing the suite. Officer Anderson checked the door to the Minister's Office and found it unlocked. Officer Anderson knocked on the door and then entered. Officer Anderson observed the female passholder on the lounge undressed. The female passholder opened her eyes and acknowledged Officer Anderson. Officer Anderson assessed that the person was alright and conscious she exited the ministerial suite. Officer Anderson advise the team leader of the situation who asked if the female was alright and Officer Anderson advised 'yes'	Parliamentary Security Service (PSS) Incident Report signed Peter Butler, Leanne Tunningley 27.03.19
48.	23 Mar 19	To the best of my knowledge at approximately 0420 I rang my nightshift team leader to let him know I was going to do a welfare check on the female as she hadn't left the building through the Ministerial entry/exit point. I entered through the front door of M1.46 at approximately 0425 and started to announce myself multiple times. I did not get a response from anyone as I called out. I noticed the Ministers office door was closed. As I made my way over to the door I called out once again before opening it.	Signed Nikola Anderson Ltr to Police 20.03.21

		I opened the door and found the female asleep lying on her back, completely naked on the lounge that was positioned at the entry way of the door. The female half opened her eyes, looked at me and turned positions on the lounge so that she was then facing outwards. I had noticed that her shoes and her dress were on the floor next to the lounge that she was sleeping on. I believed the female to be sleeping off her night, she was breathing, conscious and didn't appear to be in any distress which then concluded my welfare check. To prevent any further humiliation and loss of dignity I closed the minister's door behind me as I left. I immediately called my nightshift team leader from my personal mobile phone to inform him of the state in which I had found the female.
49.	23 Mar 19	At approximately 0420 Nikola called and informed me that she had entered the suite (Nikola's statement of events are attached to this email). I asked Nicola was the female alright. Nikola replied "yes".	Signed Statement Kevin Callan, Team Leader, undated, sent 25.3.19.

51.	23 Mar 19	To the best of my recollection at approximately 0610 I rang my team leader to Jet him know that the female still hadn't left Parliament house or suite M1.46. My team leader informed me that I was to pass on the information to my day shift relief when he came in and to keep it as discreet as possible. He told me that he had passed it on to the day shift team leader and given the compromising position the female had been in when I observed her earlier, and the potential loss of dignity, the relieving day shift team leader was going to attempt to find a day shift female security officer to do another welfare check later in the morning.	Signed Nikola Anderson Ltr to Police 20.03.21
52.	23 Mar 19	At approximately 0650, I handed over to the day shift relief officer. 71.	23 Mar 19	P/C between BH and Ben Dillaway, she lies to him Q6: But when I did speak to her, um, I could kind of tell something was off, she was very cagey. Um, and I think then she said, they'd went out and had drinks and then they kind of went back to the Minister's office as in like a group of people, like the party went back there. And then as I tried to ask her more, she said, "I don't want to talk about it." And it kind of abruptly ended the conversation then. Q23: Yeah, so, I think, I'd got the impression that she'd done – something had happened that she didn't want to tell me about. Um, but I wasn't sure what it was at that time, I probably assumed that maybe she just – she'd hooked up with another guy or something like that. Um, you know, had been out partying. Um, and then, you know, I was trying to- it didn't - it didn't - I remember thinking it didn't make any sense at all what she was telling me because she said, "They were out, then they went back to a minister's office to have drinks." And having worked in that building for a long time, like I know you just – you can't just go have a party in a minister's office. Like when Parliament's sitting, yeah, you can get people into an office pretty easy. But when Parliament's not sitting, you can't just go from a nightclub, zoom by Parliament and bring everyone from the bar and have a party in the minister's office. And kind of when she said that to me initially, I remember thinking like – you know, WTF, I'm like that doesn't make any sense. "What do you mean youse went back to the minister's office and had drinks and partied there?" I'm like, "That doesn't make any sense." And I think as I stated to probe those questions, um, she tried to kind of shut it down. And, you know, she said, "Look, I don't want to talk about it."	ROC Ben Dillaway 25.2.21

		“Lauren told me that 2 staffers had entered through a security checkpoint during the early hours of Saturday morning intoxicated, she told me their names were Bruce Lehrmann and Brittany Higgins. Lauren said Bruce left the office about 230am, a security guard went to check the office some time later to ensure it was secured and found Brittany naked and passed out. She was offered an ambulance and medical assistance which she declined. She said Brittany left the building at approx. 10am on Saturday. Lauren took me through the protocols and procedures which I needed to follow and advised that DPS were preparing a report. Lauren advised that this was a WHS, duty of care, office was inappropriately accessed and to give each of them the option to explain what happened; breach of ministerial staff code of conduct and would have to be referred to PMO because of that; offer EAP; put the facts, give time to respond, offer to work from home. The point of difference for Bruce was, he wasn't renewing his contract and I had already spoken to him about not coming into the office from tomorrow unless asked.
118.	26 Mar 19	1200hrs: I asked Bruce to meet with me at approx. 12noon. I prefaced it at the start as I had something serious to raise regarding his access to our MO over the weekend, I told him I had been advised that he and another person had arrived in the early hours of Saturday morning inebriated and could he please explain. He said he didn't agree with that he was intoxicated. I asked him who he came with he said Brittany. I asked why he attended the office at that time, he said to drink his whisky. I said so you're telling me that came specifically to the office at 130am to drink your whisky he said yes. I asked how much he drank, he said 2 glasses. I said you have breached the Min Wing security protocol and the ministerial staff standards and I would have to report this to the PMO. He denied this. I referred to the staff code of conduct and the secured area within which he worked.! asked him what he did whilst he was here and he said they chatted. I asked what part of the office he accessed and he said the office, I asked what else did you do whilst in the office, he said he didn't wish to get into that. I asked if he accessed any documents, secured areas and he said no. I asked him what time he left the office, he thought about 215am but couldn't be sure, I asked which exit he used, he said the Min Wing basement, he'd ordered a uber to take him home. I repeated to Bruce that he had breached the ministerial staff code of conduct and the security of the Min Wing by accessing the area for unofficial purposes which would be reported to the PMO/GSSC. I told Bruce I was disappointed he didn't disclose the after hours access to me, he then accepted it was wrong and he apologised and said he was very young and that other	Fiona Brown notes

I asked what time she arrived at the office, she said she didn't remember accessing the office, she said she'd been out and was inebriated, she remembered coming through the security checkpoint in the min wing basement, she remembered being woken up but didn't know which time and that she was semi-naked, she remembered waking up at about 8am on Saturday morning on the couch.	Fiona Brown notes

I said that was a report about accessing the building and office after hours in an unfit state for non work purposes which was a breach of security, that report was an access and exit report of times and what the security guards observed, I said no this was different, this was a report to the police. 143.	1 Apr 19	Dr John Kunkle (PM Morrison COS) further conversation with Fiona Brown (LR COS). A32: Ah, so, the next involvement, um, ah, would have largely been through the Government Staff Committee process, um, which was Fiona briefing the Government Staff Committee, and I sit on the Government Staff Committee. Um, about, you know, what had been established, so this is talking about – I think on or about the first of April, twenty-nineteen. A33 Um, and the focus of that meeting was, um, you know, what was at that point a picture of serious misconduct by a male staff member in, um, having had two serious incidents, one relating to security documents and the second one, obviously, um, was about, you know, coming back into the building. Um, and essentially I think also, um, being miss-truthful in discussions he had had with Miss BROWN. So, you know, there was a series of other triggers, which basically, um, had led then to what I would probably take as a tentative conclusion that, um, you know, we need to consider whether there is serious misconduct. So, there's a Ministerial Code of Conduct. A34: Um, and, um and in essence the conversation was around was this serious misconduct under that code. And the implications for that would be, um, you know, potential termination and that subsequently followed through later on in that week.	ROI J Kunkle 04.11.21 w/AFP Q32

162.	05 Apr 19	0928am BL emails Minister Reynolds and Fiona Brown: I respond feeling embarrassed, ashamed and deeply remorseful. I offer no excuses and accept that entering the office after hours is a breach no matter what the reason. I do however, refute the claim that I informed security it was for official purposes. This insinuates that I was acting under authority from you and this was in no way the case and I certainly did not make that inference. This action was the result of a serious lack of judgement on my part and I apologise and regret it happening. On this matter I also want to take the opportunity to apologise to you and Fiona directly for the position I have put you both in because of it. On the day it was raised with me I do recall apologising to Fiona because of the position she was in and I stand by that. Minister, at no time was I acting with malice, ill-will or an intent to cause indirect or direct damage to you, your office or your staff. In relation to the mishandling of a classified document. I would take this opportunity to offer my version of events. At all times the document in question had been secured in the proper way. I was simply seeking to get rid of the document and sending it back to its home agency as it was not relevant to any future work and I took the view that it was best to return it, which is the proper thing to do with such a highly classified document. I accept that I should have waited for the Home Affairs DLO to return rather than simply leaving it on her desk, however I understood her to be away for only a very short period of time. In the past, the return of ASIO bulletins etc. Have been through the Home Affairs DLO as it was explained to me by the Department at the time, I am of the view that I was following the same procedure and that was certainly my intent. The document was securely returned through the DLO in Minister Dutton's Office. I regret that on face value it may have appeared to be a mishandling, however my intention at all times was to securely and quickly get the document back to its home agency. I do offer a further apology to Fiona for not returning on my final day. This was a particularly difficult day for me where I simply spiralled down a dark path and to see my some 5 years plus come to an end so quickly was very shocking for me. 	staffing and supporting various iterations of the Coalition Government through my work and through elections. This past week has been very difficult and I have not been in the right mind to even think about matters on Capital Hill. That is why I retreated to Queensland to see my mother who has been sick for a number of months now. I grew up in a very small and close family unit, my mum raised myself and sister alone after the passing of my father when I was 2 years old, she relied on nothing but welfare and giving up her dreams and aspirations to see her two children succeed. I do feel I have failed. Seeing her ill this past little while and the things that inevitably run through your mind has had a profound impact on my mental ability, decision making and what is deeply unfortunate in my mind it has spilled over into the work I did for you. This is in no way an excuse but taking a step back this past week, I feel it has given me an insight to my actions and decision making, which is totally out of character for me, especially when I reflect on my previous years staffing in the building. The start to this year has been particularly difficult in a personal sense for me and I have always tried to bottle it up to ensure I keep personal very separate to work and I regret that the situation has got the better of me and led me down the path of seriously poor decision making with respect to my work. While spending time with my family I have also been seeking help and trying to recoup and pick up the pieces. You have been the sixth boss I have worked for in my time in Parliament and I maintain you have been the best. Not only are you the first Minister I have worked for that actually takes a deep and abiding interest in the portfolio's you hold but you genuinely care how you can make the nation a better place to live, its not just words. I only regret not picking your brains more and seeking your mentorship on how to be a staffer, as I know like me you also began at a very young age. It is nothing but an honour to work for any Senator, MP or Minister but working for you has been a particular highlight of mine. You have an incredible team of staff assembled lead by an experienced and steady pair of hands in Fiona, I hope to see them all becoming the Office of the Minister for Defence post this coming election. I know you are really in your element now with this portfolio and it scares me the thought of having the ALP or anyone else for that matter other than you in charge of the Defence portfolio. Again, I am genuinely sorry for my actions which are completely out of character for me and the result of clouded and poor decision making. I am sorry to you and Fiona for the position I have forced you in to. I have let you down considerably and for that and I feel terrible. I will accept the outcome of your considerations. I wish you good luck for the gruelling campaign ahead and all the best of luck for what I know will be a very

164.	05 Apr 19	Ms Fiona Brown states at para 18: I first knew that Ms Higgins had 'alleged sexual assault' when I was told, on Friday 5 April 2019 (a non-sitting day), by Minister Reynolds, that during her meeting with AFP Assistant Commissioner Leanne Close the day before (Thursday 4 April 2019), Minister Reynolds had been told by the Assistant Commissioner that Ms Higgins had made an allegation of sexual assault, and that it was now in the hands of the AFP. At para 19: This was further confirmed when, at 4.05pm, AFP agent Rebecca Cleaves called me to advise that Ms Higgins had an appointment with the Sexual Assault Team on Monday 8 April 2019 at 5pm. Agent Cleaves advised me that the AFP were conducting an administrative investigation.	Fiona Brown Stat. Dec 3.6.21, para 18
165.	05 Apr 19	Friday 5/5/19 1327hrs Called out be my EA to speak urgently to Fiona Brown COS to Minister Reynolds. She advised the employment of Bruce Lehrmann is to e discussed with him as he has finally responded to an email can she meet with him? I said, of course, but his employment matters are completely separate to the AFP investigation she should NOT raise the criminal allegations. Fiona said she doesn't want to become a witness. I said "you already are" as you may have been the first person Brittany spoke to about the allegation she was sexually assaulted. Fiona then said "how should we treat the issue of Bruce leaving a junior member of staff behind in that state?" I said I don't understand what you are referring to. She said - oh don't worry that's a separate issue. I assured her she could have a conversation with Bruce but not to discuss anything to do with the sex assault allegations AND advised her to take good notes of the conversation with him. 262.	08 Feb 21	DS text to BH (p30-35) Alex is fucking smart. She's doing all this to get me into a room for mediation. I have to be officially served an interim order now. Then I come to court in a month and I have to give evidence to a registrar. She's doing it all just to fuck with me and make my life difficult. The cop basically hinted to me that this is bogus. I asked him a whole bunch of hypotheticals. He goes "put it this way David.... You don't seem threatening to me". BH: That's so random. Jesus. She's a psychopath DS: I'm just pissed off. I emailed once if we can sort this I don't want anything etc and I CC'd Alex. Good news this is likely resolved for a month so I don't have to worry about it. Despite me not being able to write my name/put on my shoes Despite the fact the male party left after 45min in a rush. Despite the fact she found me naked and unconscious in the Minister's office Despite the fact that they had to perform two witness checks over nine hours to see that I was breathing. BH: forwarding message from producer: As discussed we are planning to publish an online story this evening containing some of the observations of a security guard on duty on the night of the alleged rape. The guard performed the first welfare check on you in Minister Reynolds' office. She has told four corners: When you and the male staffer arrived at the parliament house security point she says your shoes set of the metal detector so she had to get you to remove them. She said you couldn't get them back on again that's when she realised you were inebriated, which made her concerned about you. The guard says that she performed the first welfare check on you after the male staffer left parliament hours less than an hour after you had arrived and she her bosses became concerned that you had not yet emerged from the office. She says when she opened the door to the minister's office, she found you asleep and completely naked on the minister's couch. Hey mate,

Sent this below to Mark re a place for the next few weeks, I think he said he's pretty busy filming. The first highlighted one at Randwick seems to be a good spot and good value for 3 weeks. Just don't want to leave it to the last minute. Would be good if I can check in this Friday the 3rd through to Sat 25th.

Give me a bell mate if you need, the plan then was to catch up Saturday arvo all of us....

Cheers,

BL

Hey mate,

I've worked on dates of this Saturday 4 March to Saturday 25 March (3 weeks) to by some time. If you think we should adjust to 2 weeks, happy with that. The first one in Randwick seems to be good value where I can slip in and park without too much trouble than if it was an apartment block in a busy strip etc.

Give me a bell tonight or tomorrow to line this up, Taylor I know struggles with his Airbnb app as it thinks he's a party guest....
