5. Rental from my various properties is currently being paid into the accounts and NAB, with my consent, is making interest payments on some of the mortgages in my name.

Exception to the Freezing Order

6. Clause 10 of the Freezing Order states that:

"This order does not prohibit:

(a) You paying up to $5,000 a week on your ordinary living expenses;

(b) Paying $30,000 per month (up to the sum of $350,000 unless varied by subsequent order) on your reasonable legal expenses".

7. On or about 24 August 2021 my previous solicitors (Fortis Law) wrote to NAB requesting that $66,000 be distributed to me for reasonable legal expenses for the months of July and August 2021 pursuant to clause 10 of the Freezing Order (payment request). A copy of the email and attachments is at page 16-31 of VTF-1.
8. On or about 13 September 2021 NAB's solicitors (Dentons) wrote to Fortis Law to inform them that they (Dentons) intended to write to Westpac Banking Corporation (Westpac)'s solicitors (MinterEllison), to confirm whether MinterEllison agreed that the Freezing Orders did not prevent the payments being made. A copy of the email and attachments is at page 32-51 of VTF-1.
9. On or about 16 September 2021, Dentons wrote to MinterEllison requesting their response as to whether they agreed the payment request was not prohibited under the Freezing Order. Dentons noted that NAB intended to comply with the payment request if MinterEllison agreed. A copy of the email is at page 52-53 of VTF-1.
10. On or about 20 September 2021 MinterEllison wrote to Dentons stating that paragraph 10 of the Freezing Orders was an exception not a permission and it would not be appropriate for NAB to comply with the payment request. A copy of the letter is at page 54-55 of VTF-1.

A Lawrence

11. On or about 21 September 2021, my current solicitors (Madgwicks) wrote to Dentons stating that I was entitled to a monthly allowance for legal fees under the exclusions in the Penal Notice. A copy of the email is at page 56 of VTF-1.

12. On or about 28 September 2021, MinterEllison sent an email to Madgwicks and copied in Dentons. The email acknowledged that Westpac's consent was not required for the proposed payments however expressly stated that Westpac did not intend to consent to the payment request. A copy of the email is at page 57-58 of VTF-1.

13. On or about 7 October 2021 Madgwicks wrote to Dentons stating that I was entitled to $30,000 in legal fees and $20,000 in living expenses per month pursuant to the exclusions in the Freezing Order and noted that order 15 of the penal notice states that no bank needs make enquiries into the proposed payments if the withdrawal appears permitted by the Freezing Order. Madgwicks requested that the sum of $200,000 be transferred to Madgwicks Trust Account set out as follows:

	Legal Expenses	Living expenses
July	$30,000	$20,000
August	$30,000	$20,000
September	$30,000	$20,000
October	$30,000	$20,000
Total	$120,000	$80,000
		Total Funds	$200,000

14. A copy of the letter is at page 59-61 of VTF-1.

15. On or about 12 October 2021 Dentons wrote to Madgwicks stating that MinterEllison had stated that Westpac did not consent to the payment and they did not accept that the payment was permitted as per the Freezing Order. Dentons stated that NAB would not be making the payment request without the appropriate court orders. A copy of the email is at page 62-63 of VTF-1.

16. I have not received any funds from the NAB account to date. Since July 2021 I have been unable to access any funds for payment of my legal costs or my day to day living expenses.

8-12 Natalia Avenue deposit

17. On or about 16 December 2019 I entered into a contract for the purchase of 8-12 Natalia Avenue Oakleigh South 3167 (contract). The purchaser was identified as “Vince Tesoriero &/or nominees”. A copy of the contract is at page 64-177 of VTF-1.
18. Pursuant to the contract, I paid a deposit of $1,172,000 to the vendor (deposit).
19. My intention at the time of entering into the contract was to transfer the contract to a nominee and. However, on or about July 2021 my intended nominee decided to pull out and I did not have the funds to proceed with the settlement. The completion date for the sale was 3 August 2021
20. On or about 4 August 2021 I received a notice of default from the vendor’s solicitors. A copy of the notice of default is at page 178-179 of VTF-1.
21. In order to mitigate the loss of the deposit and a potential court case against me for breach of contract, I reached out through various connections and was able to find an associate of mine who was willing to take over the contract (Nominee). The Nominee is not a related party to this proceeding. It was agreed that the Nominee would take over the contract and would return the deposit to me less expenses payable. The total to be returned to me after expenses came to $773,362.88 (deposit funds).
22. On or about 20 August 2021 at approximately 11:34am MinterEllison wrote to Fortis Law and copied in the Nominee’s solicitor, Mr Ken Grey from Arnold Bloch Lieber. MinterEllison stated that:

“We do not consider it necessary or appropriate to engage with Mr Gray or his client. It is a matter for your client and Mr Gray’s client about what steps are taken by them in connection with the proposed transaction...”
23. A copy of the correspondence is at page 180-181 of VTF-1.
24. On or about 20 August 2021 at approximately 1:47pm MinterEllison wrote to Fortis Law and stated that Westpac consented to the deposit funds being held by Fortis Law’s trust account on the basis of an undertaking that the deposit would not be dealt with until a joint account controlled by MinterEllison and Fortis Law was established. Fortis Law consented to this arrangement. A copy of the correspondence is at page 182-184 of VTF-1.
25. On or about 10 September 2021 Fortis Law wrote to Minter Ellison to confirm the deposit funds had been paid into Fortis Law’s trust account. A copy of the email is at page 185 of VTF-1.

A Lawrence 198

26. On or about 21 September 2021 Fortis Law ceased acting for me. The deposit funds were still in Fortis Law's trust account at this time and Fortis Law wrote an email to Minter Ellison to inform them that it purported to exercise a lien over these funds. A copy of the email is at page 186 of VTF-1.

27. On or about 1 October 2021 Justice Lee ordered that Fortis Law pay the deposit funds into the Court. The deposit funds were paid into the Court funds pursuant to this order. The Court currently controls the deposit funds. A copy of the order is at page 187-189 of VTF-1.

My current access to finances

28. Due to the Freezing Order and the deposit funds being held by the Court, I currently do not have any access to any funds whatsoever. As NAB has refused to release the requested payments without Westpac's consent, I do not even have access to funds to cover my daily living expenses or my legal funds and am currently relying on loans from family to survive.

29. Fortis Law has told me they have already incurred a sum of $233,600.52 in legal fees for which I am currently awaiting the final invoice and until such time as they have paid that amount they will continue to exercise a lien over my files. An agreement has been reached between Madgwicks and Fortis Law whereby Fortis Law's lien will take priority over Madgwicks' lien, except that Madgwicks will have priority in respect of the initial funding required seeking the release of funds. Madgwicks has not currently billed me for work done so far, however I understand the work conducted by Madgwicks Lawyers since approximately 22 September 2021 to be extensive. The work conducted by Madgwicks Lawyers includes:

- a. Extensive correspondence with MinterEllison in relation to this matter;
- b. Appearance at the hearing before Justice Lee on 1 October 2021;
- c. Correspondence with MinterEllison in relation to the deposit funds held by Fortis Law;
- d. Correspondence with Dentons and MinterEllison in relation to the release of funds for legal payments;
- e. Corresponding with numerous stakeholders in connection with entities related to me.
- f. Perusing and considering documents in relation to these proceedings and considering the legal issues.

A Lawrence

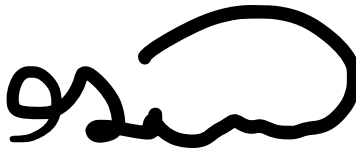

30. Whilst the Freezing Order makes some allowance for my legal fees, the reality is that I am connected to at least 20 defendants (31 if you include entities in external administration). Therefore my legal expenditure is far greater than what has been allowed for.

31. I am informed by Fortis Law that Westpac has paid $15 million into MinterEllison's trust account in relation to this proceeding. I believe Fortis Law learned this via a conversation between the partner in charge of my matter, Christopher Nehme, and the liquidator, Kathy Sozou, who I understand have a family connection.

32. I currently have no ability to pay any bills to Madgwicks and will be unable to defend the significant claims brought against me without access to significant funds.

The contents of this my affidavit are true and correct and I make it knowing that a person making a false affidavit may be prosecuted for the offence of perjury.

Legal Expenses

In relation to our legal fees, we do not agree with your assertion that our fees can only be paid from accounts in Mr Tesoriero's personal name. We refer you to Order 6(a) which states that the freezing orders are in relation to assets. Assets are defined in Order 7 and include the accounts listed in the above table. Order (10)(b) is an exception to the freezing order in relation to the assets, and explicitly makes provisions for our fees to be paid from the assets which, once again, include the above listed accounts. We attach two RTGS forms for a total payment of $66,000.00 in respect of our fees which we are arranging for our client to execute. Once executed we will email same to you to make arrangements for the payment of our fees.

Dear Ramsha

We refer to your email of 24 August 2021 below, specifically, the requests which you have foreshadowed will be made to NAB as per attached RTGS Forms for payment of $66,000 for your client's legal expenses.

The attached RTGS Forms (signed versions of which are yet to be provided) seek the following payments:

- $39,000 from 275 High Street Golden Square Pty Ltd's account ending 0047; and
- $27,000 from 4 Cowslip Street Violet Town Pty Ltd's account ending 8540.

Our client as you know is bound to follow the terms of the attached freezing orders.

We note what you say as to why you consider the freezing orders allow the above payments to be made for your client's legal expenses, notwithstanding the above accounts are not in Mr Tesoriero's name.

In the circumstances, we propose writing to Minter Ellison as the solicitors for Westpac, the applicant under the freezing orders, in the terms set out below.

If Minter Ellison reply to us that they agree that the freezing orders do not prevent the above payments being made, then our client will allow those payments subject to receiving the attached RTGS Forms duly signed and there being sufficient credit funds in the accounts.

Alternatively if Minter Ellison express a different view and your client presses for the above payment to be made, then it is open for your client to approach the Court to seek a variation or clarification of the freezing orders to allow those payments.

If you have any comments on this proposed course, please let us know by COB Tuesday 14 September 2021. Otherwise we shall write to Minter Ellison in the terms below and cc you.

Proposed email/letter to Minter Ellison

Dear Colleagues

As you know, we act for National Australia Bank Limited (NAB).

We note you act for Westpac Banking Corporation (Westpac) which is the applicant under the attached freezing orders against Vincenzo Tesoriero.

We have received correspondence from Fortis Law on behalf of Mr Tesoriero foreshadowing that their client will be requesting NAB pay amounts totalling $66,000 towards Mr Tesoriero's legal expenses from accounts held in the names of:

- 275 High Street Golden Square Pty Ltd ATF 275 High Street Golden Square Unit Trust;
- 4 Cowslip Street Violet Town Pty Ltd ATF 4 Cowslip Violet Town Unit Trust.

Fortis Law have expressed to us the view that such payment is not prohibited under the attached freezing orders, despite the above accounts not being in Mr Tesoriero's name, having regard to:

- (1) paragraph 6 of the freezing orders and specifically the reference to Mr Tesoriero's "assets";
- (2) paragraph 7 of the freezing orders as to what Mr Tesoriero's assets include for the purposes of the freezing orders; and
- (3) paragraph 10(b) of the freezing orders.

As we have discussed with Fortis Law, we are writing to you to request your response as to whether Westpac agrees that payment from the accounts of the above companies towards Mr Tesoriero's legal expenses would not be prohibited under the freezing orders.

Our client proposes to allow such payment to be made if you advise us that your client does so agree.

We have copied Fortis Law with this email.

Regards

As you know, we act for National Australia Bank Limited (NAB).

We note you act for Westpac Banking Corporation (Westpac) which is the applicant under the attached freezing orders against Vincenzo Tesoriero.

We have received correspondence from Fortis Law on behalf of Mr Tesoriero foreshadowing that their client will be requesting NAB pay amounts totalling $66,000 towards Mr Tesoriero's legal expenses for the month of July and August from accounts held in the names of:

- 275 High Street Golden Square Pty Ltd ATF 275 High Street Golden Square Unit Trust;
- 4 Cowslip Street Violet Town Pty Ltd ATF 4 Cowslip Violet Town Unit Trust;
- 9 Main Street Derrinallum Pty Ltd ATF 9 Main Street Derrinallum Unit Trust;
- 123 High Street Taradale Pty Ltd ATF 123 High Street Taradale Unit Trust;
- 89 Betka Road Mallacoota Pty Ltd ATF 89 Betka Road Mallacoota Unit Trust.

Fortis Law have expressed to us the view that such payment is not prohibited under the attached freezing orders, despite the above accounts not being in Mr Tesoriero's name, having regard to:

- (1) paragraph 6 of the freezing orders and specifically the reference to Mr Tesoriero's "assets";
- (2) paragraph 7 of the freezing orders as to what Mr Tesoriero's assets include for the purposes of the freezing orders; and
- (3) paragraph 10(b) of the freezing orders.

As we have discussed with Fortis Law, we are writing to you to request your response as to whether Westpac agrees that payment from the accounts of the above companies towards Mr Tesoriero's legal expenses would not be prohibited under the freezing orders.

Our client proposes to allow such payment to be made if you advise us that your client does so agree.

We have copied Fortis Law with this email.

Dear Mr Kang

Westpac Banking Corporation & Anor v Forum Finance Pty Limited & Ors - Federal Court of Australia Proceeding NSD616/2021 (Proceedings)

We refer to:

- (a) your email of 16 September 2021 (Your Email); and
- (b) the worldwide freezing order against Vincenzo Frank Tesoriero (Mr Tesoriero) made on 2 July 2021 (as varied on 9 July 2021 and 27 August 2021) in the Proceedings, a copy of which was attached to Your Email (Freezing Orders).

As you are aware, paragraph 6 of the Freezing Orders prevents Mr Tesoriero from disposing of, dealing with or diminishing the value of his Australian assets up to the Relevant Amount (as defined in the Freezing Orders). Further, paragraph 7(a)(iii)(A)(h),(k),(m),(o) and (u) of the Freezing Orders provides that for the purposes of the Freezing Orders, Mr Tesoriero's shares in the following companies listed in Your Email:

- (a) 123 High Street Taradale Pty Ltd ACN 639 872 512;
- (b) 4 Cowslip Street Violet Town Pty Ltd ACN 639 872 352;
- (c) 89 Betka Road Mallacoota Pty Ltd ACN 641 393 179;
- (d) 9 Main Street Derrinallum Pty Ltd ACN 639 872 736; and
- (e) 275 High Street Golden Square Pty Ltd ACN 639 870 545,

(together, the Relevant Companies),

form part of his identified Australian assets. As your client would be aware, Mr Tesoriero is the director and shareholder of the Relevant Companies.

We note that the Freezing Orders are a prohibition with an exception, not a permission. Paragraph 10(b) of the Freezing Orders provides that the Freezing Orders do not prohibit Mr Tesoriero paying $30,000 per month (up to the sum of $350,000 unless varied by subsequent order) on his reasonable legal expenses.

Our clients do not accept that the Freezing Orders permit payment of the amount of $66,000 towards Mr Tesoriero's legal expenses for the months of July and August from accounts held with your client in the names of the Relevant Companies (Proposed Payments).

Further, the amount of the Proposed Payments being $66,000 exceeds the monthly amount of $30,000 specified in paragraph 10(b).

Our clients do not consider that it would be appropriate that the Proposed Payments be made by the Relevant Companies on account of Mr Tesoriero's legal fees, which is what is being proposed, based upon Your Email.

In light of our clients' proprietary claims against Mr Tesoriero and the Relevant Companies as set out in our clients' amended statement of claim dated 10 August 2021 filed in the Proceedings, our clients' position is that the property of Mr Tesoriero and the Relevant Companies including the funds held in accounts with your client are held on trust for our clients in accordance with the principles set out in Black v S Freedman & Co (1910) 12 CLR 105 at 110.

Please could you confirm that your client will not allow the Proposed Payments to be made out the accounts of the Relevant Companies held with your client until we provide an update with respect to any variation orders made with respect to the Freezing Orders. Particularly, we are concerned that no assets of Mr Tesoriero and the Relevant Companies are transferred out of your client's control without our clients' consent or pursuant to an order of the Federal Court of Australia.

We note that Fortis Law, the solicitors acting for Mr Tesoriero and the Relevant Companies, are copied to this correspondence. We have not otherwise received any communication from Fortis Law regarding the Proposed Payments the subject of Your Email.

All of our clients' rights are expressly reserved.

Yours faithfully

Subject: RE: Tesoriero, Papadimitriou and Forum Finance Pty Ltd ats Westpac Banking Corporation Pty Ltd Federal Court of Australia Proceeding NSD616/2021 [ME-ME.FID6264995]

Dear Colleagues,

We refer to Mr Nehme's email below and confirm its content.

We are in the process of filing our Notice of Appearance and shall serve a copy upon you once filed. We are also making arrangement for the transfer of our client's file from Mr Nehme's office, which we understand shall be undertaken once the issue of unpaid legal fees has been resolved. We note that our client was entitled to a monthly allowance for legal fees under the exclusions stated in the Penal Notice. We are informed by Mr Nehme that our client has not been able to utilise the exclusions due to all his funds and liquid assets being frozen. Accordingly, in order to facilitate an expeditious transfer of the file and to avoid any delays in the progress of this matter, we ask that an agreement be reached with respect to the funds held in trust by Mr Nehme.

We wish to stress that our client is prevented from actively engaging in the proceeding without the Fortis Law file and therefore it's in the interest of all parties the address this issue as soon as possible. Accordingly, we trust that the parties can work together to address this issue without the need to approach the Court.

We also ask that the parties allow our firm some time, once the above issue has been resolved, to familiarise ourselves with the file and get up to speed with the proceeding.

We otherwise look forward to your response and thank you in advance.

[WARNING: EXTERNAL SENDER]

Dear Mr Nasimi

We note that your email of 21 September 2021 to us and your clients' former solicitors Fortis Law stated "[your] client was entitled to a monthly allowance for legal fees under the exclusions stated in the Penal Notice. [You] are informed by Mr Nehme that [your] client has not been able to utilise the exclusions due to all his funds and liquid assets being frozen."

We refer you to our attached letter of 20 September 2021 to Dentons on behalf of National Australia Bank Limited (NAB), a copy of which was sent to Fortis Law (Our Letter), and the email of 16 September 2021 from Dentons to which Our Letter responds. Capitalised terms used below have the same meaning given in Our Letter.

We note that we have not received a response to Our Letter, nor have we received any correspondence from you or Fortis Law on behalf of your client in relation to Our Letter. Our clients remain concerned about the Proposed Payments, for the reasons identified in Our Letter. However, we think it appropriate to make the following clear.

Our clients accept that their consent is not required to the Proposed Payments within the exception for legal costs in paragraph 10(b) of the Freezing Orders, although they reserve their right to seek to vary the Freezing Orders in the future. We are unsure why our clients' consent was sought.

Our clients do not propose, at least presently and without more information, to consent to the Proposed Payments for three reasons. First, to the extent our clients have a proprietary right to or over the money held by the Relevant Companies, our clients do not consent to any dealing or payment inconsistent with their rights. That is, any payment is made at the risk of the payor, and the payee where on notice of our clients' claim takes subject to that claim. Our clients will not waive those rights. We add that our clients presently do not know whether any moneys held by the Relevant Companies are not the subject of our clients' claims in part as your client has not sought to identify and explain any legitimate source of funds. Second, our clients are concerned that the Proposed Payments by the Relevant Companies are not for a proper corporate purpose and do not propose to consent to the Relevant Companies paying away money for Mr Tesoriero's benefit but not the Relevant Companies' own benefit. Our clients will not give their imprimatur to payments of that character but accept that their consent is not required. Third, the permitted sum under paragraph 10(b) of the Freezing Orders is $30,000 a month, not $33,000 a month.

We note that Dentons are copied to this email.

Dear Mr Kang

Vincenzo Frank Tesoriero & Ors ats Westpac Banking Corporation & Anor
Federal Court of New South Wales No. NSD616 of 2021

We refer to the above matter and confirm we act for Mr Tesoriero and his related entities referred to collectively as "our client".

We have now had a chance to examine our client's files that had been maintained by our predecessors. In so doing we have read and understood the correspondence concerning the funds held in the various bank accounts with the National Australia Bank. As you are aware our client is currently the subject of freezing and penal orders dated 9 July 2021 ('Freezing Orders'). Pursuant to the terms of the Freezing Orders our client is entitled to a sum of $30,000 per month for legal expenses and a further $20,000 per month for living expenses. These carve outs form part of the orders, albeit in the form of exceptions and beyond these exceptions no other conditions have been attached to these carve outs. In addition to the above, we would also like to draw your attention to order 15 of the Penal Notice which reads as follows:

15. Bank Withdrawals By You

No bank need inquire as to the application or proposed application of any money withdrawn by you if the withdrawal appears to be permitted by this order.

Accordingly, in circumstances where the Penal Notice is plainly written we struggle to see how it can be argued that the foreshadowed withdrawal is not permitted by this order.

We note that on the last occasion that our client requested the funds held in its NAB accounts, your client sought the consent of Westpac. We wish to stress that the consent of Westpac is not required and this position has been accepted by Westpac itself in their correspondence of 28 September 2021. Further, we expressly prohibit your client from discussing or bringing our client's request to the attention of Westpac or its representatives. Any discussion with third parties pertaining to our client's accounts is a breach of his privacy. If you are unsure as to what your client's obligations are with respect to releasing funds to our client then we suggest that the proper course for you is to make an application to the Court and seek direction or clarification.

To date, our client has been unable to utilise its funds in a manner permissible under the Penal Notice since July 2021. We have calculated the funds that our client is entitled to, as follows:

August	$30,000	$20,000

Accordingly, we ask that your client take immediate steps to provide to our client the sum of $200,000 from its NAB Accounts in the following manner:

For legal expenditure:

Withdrawal from 082-080 448010047 in the sum of $60,000.

Withdrawal from 082-080 421958540 in the sum of $60,000.

Dear Ms Passarelli

We confirm that we act for National Australia Bank Limited (NAB) and note you act for Mr Vincenzo Tesoriero.

We refer to your attached letter of 7 October 2021.

Your letter states that you require our client to transfer immediately a total of $200,000 from accounts in the names of various companies into your firm's trust account in respect of Mr Tesoriero's legal and living expenses. We note you have not requested a transfer from, nor are there sufficient funds in, any account held by Mr Tesoriero personally.

For reference, the table below lists the accounts, the account balances and the amounts which your attached letters seeks to have transferred from those accounts to your firm's trust account.

In response to your letter:

1. NAB is bound to follow the terms of the attached freezing orders (Freezing Orders) made on the application of Westpac Banking Corporation (Westpac) against your client. On the face of things, it is not clear to NAB that payments for Mr Tesoriero's personal legal and / or living expenses made from accounts held by third parties fall within the Exceptions to the Freezing Orders.

2. With the consent of your clients' previous solicitors, Fortis Law, we wrote by email to Westpac's solicitors Minter Ellison with regard to Mr Tesoriero's then foreshadowed application to withdraw $66,000 from the first 5 above listed accounts for payment of your client's legal expenses.
3. As you know Minter Ellison have responded that Westpac does not consent to such payment being made from those accounts and does not accept that those payments are permitted by the Freezing Orders – in which regard we refer to:
 - a. Minter Ellison's attached email to your firm (copied to us) of 28 September 2021; and
 - b. Minter Ellison's letter of 20 September 2021 to us (copied to Fortis Law) in reply to our above email, attached and referred to in Minter Ellison's above email.
4. In light of Minter Ellison's attached email correspondence and letter, we envisage Westpac (if asked) would adopt the same position with respect to the payments sought in your attached letter.
5. While your attached letter states that you "expressly prohibit" our client from discussing or bringing to Westpac's attention the request for payment of $200,000 now made in your attached letter:
 - a. Westpac are already aware of your client's earlier above request for payment to be allowed for legal expenses – again, about which we wrote to Minter Ellison with your client's consent through his previous solicitors, Fortis Law;
 - b. you will appreciate that any Court application as to whether the payments now sought are prohibited under the Freezing Orders, would need to be served on or notified to Westpac as an interested party in any event.
6. Respectfully, it is not for our client to attempt to resolve or arbitrate an issue which is clearly one of contention between your client and Westpac as to the scope and effect of the Freezing Orders.
7. If your client contends that the payments requested in your attached letter should be made, then it is incumbent on your client to apply to the Court for appropriate orders and provide NAB with a sealed copy of any varied orders.
8. Pending any Court determination of the issue, our client will not be making the payments sought in your attached letter having regard to the terms of the Freezing Orders and attached correspondence with Westpac's solicitors Minter Ellison.

Regards

Due diligence checklist

What you need to know before buying a residential property

Before you buy a home, you should be aware of a range of issues that may affect that property and impose restrictions or obligations on you, if you buy it. This checklist aims to help you identify whether any of these issues will affect you. The questions are a starting point only and you may need to seek professional advice to answer some of them. You can find links to organisations and web pages that can help you learn more, by visiting the Due diligence checklist page on the Consumer Affairs Victoria website (consumer.vic.gov.au/duediligencechecklist).

Urban living

Moving to the inner city?

High density areas are attractive for their entertainment and service areas, but these activities create increased traffic as well as noise and odours from businesses and people. Familiarising yourself with the character of the area will give you a balanced understanding of what to expect.

Is the property subject to an owners corporation?

If the property is part of a subdivision with common property such as driveways or grounds, it may be subject to an owners corporation. You may be required to pay fees and follow rules that restrict what you can do on your property, such as a ban on pet ownership.

Growth areas

Are you moving to a growth area?

You should investigate whether you will be required to pay a growth areas infrastructure contribution.

Flood and fire risk

Does this property experience flooding or bushfire?

Properties are sometimes subject to the risk of fire and flooding due to their location. You should properly investigate these risks and consider their implications for land management, buildings and insurance premiums.

Rural properties

Moving to the country?

If you are looking at property in a rural zone, consider:

- Is the surrounding land use compatible with your lifestyle expectations? Farming can create noise or odour that may be at odds with your expectations of a rural lifestyle.
- Are you considering removing native vegetation? There are regulations which affect your ability to remove native vegetation on private property.
- Do you understand your obligations to manage weeds and pest animals?

Can you build new dwellings?

Does the property adjoin crown land, have a water frontage, contain a disused government road, or are there any crown licences associated with the land?

Is there any earth resource activity such as mining in the area?

You may wish to find out more about exploration, mining and quarrying activity on or near the property and consider the issue of petroleum, geothermal and greenhouse gas sequestration permits, leases and licences, extractive industry authorisations and mineral licences.

Soil and groundwater contamination

Has previous land use affected the soil or groundwater?

You should consider whether past activities, including the use of adjacent land, may have caused contamination at the site and whether this may prevent you from doing certain things to or on the land in the future.

(04/10/2016)

Land boundaries

Do you know the exact boundary of the property?

You should compare the measurements shown on the title document with actual fences and buildings on the property, to make sure the boundaries match. If you have concerns about this, you can speak to your lawyer or conveyancer, or commission a site survey to establish property boundaries.

Planning controls

Can you change how the property is used, or the buildings on it?

All land is subject to a planning scheme, run by the local council. How the property is zoned and any overlays that may apply, will determine how the land can be used. This may restrict such things as whether you can build on vacant land or how you can alter or develop the land and its buildings over time.

The local council can give you advice about the planning scheme, as well as details of any other restrictions that may apply, such as design guidelines or bushfire safety design. There may also be restrictions – known as encumbrances – on the property's title, which prevent you from developing the property. You can find out about encumbrances by looking at the section 32 statement.

Are there any proposed or granted planning permits?

The local council can advise you if there are any proposed or issued planning permits for any properties close by. Significant developments in your area may change the local 'character' (predominant style of the area) and may increase noise or traffic near the property.

Safety

Is the building safe to live in?

Building laws are in place to ensure building safety. Professional building inspections can help you assess the property for electrical safety, possible illegal building work, adequate pool or spa fencing and the presence of asbestos, termites, or other potential hazards.

Building permits

Have any buildings or retaining walls on the property been altered, or do you plan to alter them?

There are laws and regulations about how buildings and retaining walls are constructed, which you may wish to investigate to ensure any completed or proposed building work is approved. The local council may be able to give you information about any building permits issued for recent building works done to the property, and what you must do to plan new work. You can also commission a private building surveyor's assessment.

Are any recent building or renovation works covered by insurance?

Ask the vendor if there is any owner-builder insurance or builder's warranty to cover defects in the work done to the property.

Utilities and essential services

Does the property have working connections for water, sewerage, electricity, gas, telephone and internet?

Unconnected services may not be available, or may incur a fee to connect. You may also need to choose from a range of suppliers for these services. This may be particularly important in rural areas where some services are not available.

Buyers' rights

Do you know your rights when buying a property?

The contract of sale and section 32 statement contain important information about the property, so you should request to see these and read them thoroughly. Many people engage a lawyer or conveyancer to help them understand the contracts and ensure the sale goes through correctly. If you intend to hire a professional, you should consider speaking to them before you commit to the sale. There are also important rules about the way private sales and auctions are conducted. These may include a cooling-off period and specific rights associated with 'off the plan' sales. The important thing to remember is that, as the buyer, you have rights.

Notes to certificates under Section 105 of the Land Tax Act 2005

Certificate No: 28980462

- Under Section 96 of the Land Tax Act 2005 (the Act), unpaid land tax (including special land tax and vacant residential land tax) is a first charge on the land to which it relates and should the vendor default, payment will be obtained from the purchaser. The purchaser should take into account the possibility that the vendor may default where land tax has been assessed but not paid.
- If land tax (including special land tax and vacant residential land tax) is due but not paid on a property, the Land Tax Clearance Certificate will certify the amount of land tax due and payable on that land. This amount will be binding on the Commissioner of State Revenue (the Commissioner) for purposes of section 96 of the Act whether or not it is paid to the State Revenue Office (SRO) on, or shortly after, settlement.
- The amount of land tax on this certificate relates to the amount of land tax (including special land tax and vacant residential land tax) due and payable as at the date of the application only and not to any future liability or the tax status of the land.
- A 'Nil' Land Tax Clearance certificate does not mean that the land on the certificate is exempt from land tax or vacant residential land tax.
- If land tax (including special land tax or vacant residential land tax) will be payable on a property but payment is not due at the time the application is processed, the certificate will certify the amount that should be retained by the purchaser at settlement and remitted to the SRO. The Commissioner will consider himself bound by this amount against the purchaser, only if the amount is remitted to the SRO within 28 days after settlement.
- If the amount in 3. (above) is understated, the Commissioner has the right to seek recovery of the correct amount, or the balance, as the case may be, from
 - the vendor, or
 - the purchaser, if the vendor defaults and the certified amount has not been remitted to the SRO within 28 days after settlement.
- If an amount is certified in respect of a proposed sale which is not completed, the Commissioner will not be bound by the same amount in respect of a later sale of the subject land - another certificate must be applied for in respect of that transaction.
- If an amount certified is excessively high (for example, because an exemption or concession has not been deducted in calculating the amount) the Commissioner will issue an amended certificate, without an additional fee being charged on receipt of sufficient evidence to that effect from the vendor.
- If no land tax (including special land tax or vacant residential land tax) is stated as being payable in respect of the property, the Commissioner will consider himself bound by that certification, in respect of the purchaser, if the land is subsequently found to be taxable and the vendor defaults.
- If the vendor refuses to be bound by an amount stated by the Commissioner and does not agree to the amount being withheld and remitted at settlement, the purchaser cannot rely on such refusal as a defence to an action by the Commissioner to recover the outstanding amount from the purchaser under Sections 96 or 98 of the Act.
- The information on a certificate cannot preclude the Commissioner from taking action against a vendor to recover outstanding land tax (including special land tax and vacant residential land tax).

Statement of advice and information for prospective purchasers and lot owners

Schedule 3, Regulation 17, Owners Corporations Regulations 2018

What is an owners corporation?

The lot you are considering buying is part of an owners corporation. Whenever a plan of subdivision creates common property, an owners corporation is responsible for managing the common property. A purchaser of a lot that is part of an owners corporation automatically becomes a member of the owners corporation when the transfer of that lot to the purchaser has been registered with Land Victoria.

If you buy into an owners corporation, you will be purchasing not only the individual property, but also ownership of, and the right to use, the common property as set out in the plan of subdivision. This common property may include driveways, stairs, paths, passages, lifts, lobbies, common garden areas and other facilities set up for use by owners and occupiers. In order to identify the boundary between the individual lot you are purchasing (for which the owner is solely responsible) and the common property (for which all members of the owners corporation are responsible), you should closely inspect the plan of subdivision.

How are decisions made by an owners corporation?

As an owner, you will be required to make financial contributions to the owners corporation, in particular for the repair, maintenance and management of the common property. Decisions as to the management of this common property will be the subject of collective decision making. Decisions as to these financial contributions, which may involve significant expenditure, will be decided by a vote.

Owners corporation rules

The owners corporation rules may deal with matters such as car parking, noise, pets, the appearance or use of lots, behaviour of owners, occupiers or guests and grievance procedures.

You should look at the owners corporation rules to consider any restrictions imposed by the rules.

Lot entitlement and lot liability

The plan of subdivision will also show your lot entitlement and lot liability. Lot liability represents the share of owners corporation expenses that each lot owner is required to pay.

Lot entitlement is an owner's share of ownership of the common property, which determines voting rights. You should make sure that the allocation of lot liability and entitlement for the lot you are considering buying seems fair and reasonable.

Further information

If you are interested in finding out more about living in an owners corporation, you can contact Consumer Affairs Victoria. If you require further information about the particular owners corporation you are buying into you can inspect that owners corporation's information register.

Management of an owners corporation

An owners corporation may be self-managed by the lot owners or professionally managed by an owners corporation manager. If an owners corporation chooses to appoint a professional manager, it must be a manager registered with the Business Licensing Authority (BLA).

If you are uncertain about any aspect of the owners corporation or the documents you have received from the owners corporation, you should seek expert advice.

Model rules for an owners corporation

1. Health, safety and security

1.1 Health, safety and security of lot owners, occupiers of lots and others

A lot owner or occupier must not use the lot, or permit it to be used, so as to cause a hazard to the health, safety and security of an owner, occupier, or user of another lot.

1.2 Storage of flammable liquids and other dangerous substances and materials

(1) Except with the approval in writing of the owners corporation, an owner or occupier of a lot must not use or store on the lot or on the common property any flammable chemical, liquid or gas or other flammable material.

(2) This rule does not apply to—

(a) chemicals, liquids, gases or other material used or intended to be used for domestic purposes;

or

(b) any chemical, liquid, gas or other material in a fuel tank of a motor vehicle or internal combustion engine.

1.3 Waste disposal

An owner or occupier must ensure that the disposal of garbage or waste does not adversely affect the health, hygiene or comfort of the occupiers or users of other lots.

2. Committees and sub-committees

2.1 Functions, powers and reporting of committees and sub-committees

A committee may appoint members to a sub committee without reference to the owners corporation.

3. Management and administration

3.1 Metering of services and apportionment of costs of services

(1) The owners corporation must not seek payment or reimbursement for a cost or charge from a lot owner or occupier that is more than the amount that the supplier would have charged the lot owner or occupier for the same goods or services.

(2) If a supplier has issued an account to the owners corporation, the owners corporation cannot recover from the lot owner or occupier an amount which includes any amount that is able to be claimed as a concession or rebate by or on behalf of the lot owner or occupier from the relevant supplier.

(3) Subrule (2) does not apply if the concession or rebate—

(a) must be claimed by the lot owner or occupier and the owners corporation has given the lot owner or occupier an opportunity to claim it and the lot owner or occupier has not done so by the payment date set by the relevant supplier; or

(b) is paid directly to the lot owner or occupier as a refund.

4. Use of common property

4.1 Use of common property

(1) An owner or occupier of a lot must not obstruct the lawful use and enjoyment of the common property by any other person entitled to use the common property.

(2) An owner or occupier of a lot must not, without the written approval of the owners corporation, use for the owner or occupier's own purposes as a garden any portion of the common property.

(3) An approval under subrule (2) may state a period for which the approval is granted.

(4) If the owners corporation has resolved that an animal is a danger or is causing a nuisance to the common property, it must give reasonable notice of this resolution to the owner or occupier who is keeping the animal.

(5) An owner or occupier of a lot who is keeping an animal that is the subject of a notice under subrule (4) must remove that animal.

(6) Subrules (4) and (5) do not apply to an animal that assists a person with an impairment or disability.

4.2 Vehicles and parking on common property

An owner or occupier of a lot must not, unless in the case of an emergency, park or leave a motor vehicle or other vehicle or permit a motor vehicle or other vehicle—

(a) to be parked or left in parking spaces situated on common property and allocated for other lots; or

(b) on the common property so as to obstruct a driveway, pathway, entrance or exit to a lot; or

(c) in any place other than a parking area situated on common property specified for that purpose by the owners corporation.

4.3 Damage to common property

(1) An owner or occupier of a lot must not damage or alter the common property without the written approval of the owners corporation.

(2) An owner or occupier of a lot must not damage or alter a structure that forms part of the common property without the written approval of the owners corporation.

(3) An approval under subrule (1) or (2) may state a period for which the approval is granted, and may specify the works and conditions to which the approval is subject.

(4) An owner or person authorised by an owner may install a locking or safety device to protect the lot against intruders, or a screen or barrier to prevent entry of animals or insects, if the device, screen or barrier is soundly built and is consistent with the colour, style and materials of the building.

(5) The owner or person referred to in subrule (4) must keep any device, screen or barrier installed in good order and repair.

5. Lots

5.1 Change of use of lots

An owner or occupier of a lot must give written notification to the owners corporation if the owner or occupier changes the existing use of the lot in a way that will affect the insurance premiums for the owners corporation.

Example

If the change of use results in a hazardous activity being carried out on the lot, or results in the lot being used for commercial or industrial purposes rather than residential purposes.

5.2 External appearance of lots

- (1) An owner or occupier of a lot must obtain the written approval of the owners corporation before making any changes to the external appearance of their lot.
- (2) An owners corporation cannot unreasonably withhold approval, but may give approval subject to reasonable conditions to protect quiet enjoyment of other lot owners, structural integrity or the value of other lots and/or common property.

5.3 Requiring notice to the owners corporation of renovations to lots

An owner or occupier of a lot must notify the owners corporation when undertaking any renovations or other works that may affect the common property and/or other lot owners' or occupiers' enjoyment of the common property.

6. Behaviour of persons

6.1 Behaviour of owners, occupiers and invitees on common property

An owner or occupier of a lot must take all reasonable steps to ensure that guests of the owner or occupier do not behave in a manner likely to unreasonably interfere with the peaceful enjoyment of any other person entitled to use the common property.

6.2 Noise and other nuisance control

- (1) An owner or occupier of a lot, or a guest of an owner or occupier, must not unreasonably create any noise likely to interfere with the peaceful enjoyment of any other person entitled to use the common property.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply to the making of a noise if the owners corporation has given written permission for the noise to be made.

7. Dispute resolution

- (1) The grievance procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes involving a lot owner, manager, or an occupier or the owners corporation.
- (2) The party making the complaint must prepare a written statement in the approved form.
- (3) If there is a grievance committee of the owners corporation, it must be notified of the dispute by the complainant.
- (4) If there is no grievance committee, the owners corporation must be notified of any dispute by the complainant, regardless of whether the owners corporation is an immediate party to the dispute.
- (5) The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, along with either the grievance committee or the owners corporation, within 14 working days after the dispute comes to the attention of all the parties.

- (6) A party to the dispute may appoint a person to act or appear on the party's behalf at the meeting.
- (7) If the dispute is not resolved, the grievance committee or owners corporation must notify each party of the party's right to take further action under Part 10 of the Owners Corporations Act 2006.
- (8) This process is separate from and does not limit any further action under Part 10 of the Owners Corporations Act 2006.

Subject: RE: Tesoriero, Papadimitriou and Forum Finance Pty Ltd ats Westpac Banking Corporation Pty Ltd Federal Court of Australia Proceeding NSD616/2021 [ME-ME.FID6264995]

Dear Mr Nehme

We refer to:

- a) our letter of 19 August 2021 (Our Letter); and
- b) your email below of 19 August 2021 in response to Our Letter (Your Email).

In response to the matters set out in Your Email, our clients respond as follows:

1. The arrangements proposed by your client remain entirely opaque to us and our clients.
2. What is now proposed in the draft Nomination Deed appears to be a different deal to that which was foreshadowed in your earlier correspondence. By way of example, the arrangement in your letter of 17 August 2021 was said to be for an amount of $1.2 million – the draft Nomination Deed contemplates a “reimbursement” of the deposit of $1.172 million, less other amounts which may be payable (with no explanation provided as to the quantum of any such amounts).
3. Your client has not provided the bulk of the documents requested in paragraph 8 of Our Letter, which we considered necessary to enable our clients to consider the proposal. We press for those documents to be provided, failing which, we will issue a notice to produce for the same.
4. Again, your client has failed or refused to provide an updated affidavit of his assets, given the deficiencies we have identified and corresponded with you about.

In those circumstances, we do not consider it necessary or appropriate to engage with Mr Gray or his client. It is a matter for your client and Mr Gray's client about what steps are taken by them in connection with the proposed transaction, in light of the allegations made in Federal Court of Australia proceedings NSD616/2021 (Proceedings). However, should the transaction proceed, our clients require that any funds received by your client are paid into a controlled monies account the signatories of which are MinterEllison and Fortis Law or are paid into Court. We do not consider it appropriate that "the parties" to the Proceedings be giving directions about these matters. Such is a matter between our clients and yours.

All of our clients' rights are reserved.

Dear Mr Sommer,

We note your email.

Please confirm that your client, in the interim, will consent to the funds being held in our Trust Account until such time as a joint account is established.

Fortis Law will undertake not to deal with those funds until such time as the appropriate account is established.

Our account's department will make enquiries to set up a Controlled Monies Account forthwith. I have copied in Ms Colegrove our accounts manager who can liaise with your accounts department.

Please feel free to contact me.

Hi Damien

Please accept my apologies for the late response. I have been very unwell following my vaccination and over two weeks later am only just starting to recover.

Attached is the Trust Receipt and corresponding Trust Statement for your funds, which I can confirm are held in our trust account.

I have been able to make some enquiries through our Bank Manager but have been given more information since my last email which may mean the interest rate of 0.35% and associated product is not an option. If that is the case the best interest rate the bank can offer may only be 0.25%.

I expect to have more information by Monday and will confirm the options available to you then.

Apologies again for the delay in actioning this for you.

Kind regards,
Sarah Colegrove | Practice Manager

Dear Anthony,

We are no longer instructed in this matter.

Mr Sazz Nasimi of Madgwicks is acting on behalf of Mr Tesoriero and related entities, whom we understand will shortly be filing a notice of chance of solicitor.

We have copied in Mr Nasimi.

As to the proceeds held in trust, being the sum of $773,362.88, Fortis Law will continue to hold that sum as security for payment of legal fees in this matter or further order of Court, particularly in light of your letter to the NAB Bank on 20 September 2021.

For your ease of reference, the balance money from the nomination are held ABL pending a Revenue Assessment.
