

I would love to keep 0.45.21.8 from "how did you find out that guard saw you?"

And "I found out through another party who was a staffer. He was the first person to point blank ask me if I had been raped."

I think it's crucial that we show that the security knew she must have been raped because it indicates the lack of duty of care on an industrial level from the get go.

10:35 pm

