I'm suggesting we keep all rushes from this story OFF the shared TEN Ardome server.

I've spoken with Sam Moncur about this already and we could ingest the cards directly into the AVID server in Melbourne. Or send via drop box or other options.

I should also add, our talent has now been to the GP and has a mental health plan. She's also seeing a counsellor.

Morning all

We'll be recording the master interview for our ACT story tomorrow in Sydney early afternoon.

I've spoken with our talent's flatmate who is able to provide her recollections.

I've also spoken with the local rape crisis centre volunteer who was present at the AFP interview with our talent.

Myles/Tasha - I'll be in touch later today to talk through these people in more detail.

For her own health and wellbeing our talent resigned from her position on Friday. Her office is strongly encouraging her to change her mind and stay on; but for now she has been given a week's leave to consider her options.

At this stage the proposed air date is Sunday 14th/Monday 15th February. Lisa is extremely keen on it being a Sunday Project story; Sam M wants it to be on a Monday. Maybe we'll need to go with Monday 15th.
