If I was Lisa Wilkinson or a journalist - no problem.

I'm just your mother who lives across the road and is trying to be here. Who also lives alone

When you need me I'm here. Then radio silence -NOTHING. Not even a call or text. Cancel every single thing you say you will do. Tell me not to come over. Tell me to not call. It's not how I feel - it's how your treating me

You are focusing on everything and everyone outside the people who really love you and know you.

You have time for every argument and fight and yet no time for your loved ones

You chose what you have time for and what matters. Your in control here

So no I don't accept that response. As it takes nothing to see your mum who lives across the road
