Daily Telegraph have heard several reports of Geoffrey Rush harassing 'a number of women' on the set of King Lear.

There was one woman in particular that he had to carry each night.

This woman is currently in an STC show, so will not talk to The Daily Telegraph.

Daily Telegraph have been told that her complaint ~~was~~ against Geoffrey Rush was 'silenced'.

They have several sources who have told them about the Geoffrey Rush situation.

There are a lot of people talking about this in the acting

He is a survivor of sexual abuse himself.

He wants to do this in a <sup>compliant</sup> way that protects the ~~actors~~ identity.
