Impressive would have been Presutto expelling Deeming as soon as she started spewing her messages of hate & division.

Instead he embraced her.
He's reacting now, bc the entire world has seen his LIB colleague standing with Neo Nazis.

I announced on International Women's Day, in Parliament that I'll be in attendance and invited Natalie Hutchins. In private, because she is the Minister for Women.</small> <small>Due to threats of violence from extreme left activists including the notorious Antifa, I was approached and asked if I could drive international speaker Kelly Jay and her security guards to park in Parliament House car park, for safer passage to and from the Parliament House steps. I sought and gained permission from Parliament services to do so.</small> <small>The event was very ably organised by Angela James, a left-wing, anti-gay rights Jewish woman, who liaised with Victoria Police to arrange a buffer zone between her event and any counter protesters.</small> <small>This is why I and the other attendees were horrified to see masked men all clad in black inside the buffer zone. We thought that we were going to be attacked. However, the police did not seem worried and were talking with them over at the edge of the line.</small> <small>Later I saw the police seemingly usher these men right through the centre of the buffer zone in between our event and the counter protesters, which is when I saw those men raise their hands in a Hitler salute.</small> <small>I, along with the few others who were facing them from the front were horrified, but realised that the police were moving them on.</small> <small>After the event I was informed that these masked men had in fact mounted Parliament House steps outside of our view on the other end and performed a Nazi salute, and that members of the SPW group asked the police to make them leave, but were informed that the Police had no powers to move them on due to Labor's removal of those powers.</small> <small>The Let Women Speak event saw several women injured by the extreme left counter protesters who infiltrated the event. I was assaulted and injured, along with multiple other women, including one who was taken to hospital after being knocked unconscious. They also became violent with police and punched police horses, forcing the event to finish early. I condemn their actions, should be condemned.</small> <small>I condemn the actions of the masked men in black who were later identified as Neo-Nazi, who gate-crashed the Let Women Speak event. Most of the LWS supporters did not realise who they were until they were being escorted out by Victoria Police, when they did the "respectable Nazi salute".</small> <small>Due to threats of violence from extreme left activists including the notorious Antifa, I was approached and asked if I could drive international speaker Kelly Jay and her security guards to park in Parliament House car park, for safer passage to and from the Parliament House steps.
