How about?

The Liberal Party is understandably sensitive to criticism that it has a women problem.

But tonight that issue is being debated again with claims by a young staffer that she was raped in a ministerial office in Parliament House.

Brittany Higgins says the Government let her down. The word she uses is "betrayal."

I sat down with her for this exclusive television interview.

LISA)

Parliament House, Canberra. At its official opening in 1988 the Queen described it as the "embodiment of the democratic principles of freedom, equality and justice."

Now one staffer is speaking out - claiming she was raped inside a ministerial office.
And she's faced multiple obstacles in her search for justice.
