Thanks Lisa. You're right. Working on this today.

Really great edit guys....just two things I would say, the fact that Finklestein checked in the day of the Four Corners Canberra Bubble story is really significant, as opposed to him randomly just checking in to see if she is OK - at the moment its framed to look like his checking in is some sort of caring gesture, which according to my conversations with Brittany was definitely not the case. The timing of that call was crucial. At the moment we are totally letting him off the hook. This also drives home the proximity to the PMO, and the fact that it's not just the rape itself that is horrifying, it's the systemic coverup.

Secondly, I asked Brittany on camera why she was speaking out now, and her answer was absolutely magnificent. A lot of viewers will wonder her motivations a whole two years after the fact, so is there any chance we can squeeze that in please? I think it will help shield Brittany once the story airs from accusations that her motivation is anything other than noble.

Cheers, and thanks,

Lisa.
